Bringing Our Gifts

Jill Martin

Pastor: The Lord has commanded us to give an offering to God, for God is our Creator and is faithful to us both day and night. Therefore, whoever has received abundant gifts from God, let them give their offerings with generous hearts.

People: God has been faithful unto us. As for me and my house, we will be faithful in keeping the Lord’s command to bring offerings of the best that we have.

Doxology *

(a member of our deaf class leads in the signing.)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow

Praise Him, all creatures here below.

O praise Him, Alleluia!

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host,

Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost,

Prayer of Dedication

David Daiker, Deacon

Following the prayer of dedication, kindergarten and younger are invited to attend Extended Session.

Anthem “Communion Song”

music by Don Besig

The Sanctuary Choir

We come to the table the Lord has prepared.

With hearts ever grateful, we join now in prayer.

For times we have failed in the lives that we live,

We come to seek forgiveness that God alone can give.

Now the bread is broken; now the cup is poured.

Now the words are spoken in remembrance of our Lord.

Now we know God’s promise; now we feel God’s grace.

Now we find forgiveness in this gift of love we share today.

We come as believers who trust in the Lord.

We come because we love Him and want to love Him more.

Now the bread is broken; now the cup is poured.

Now the words are spoken in remembrance of our Lord.

Now we know God’s promise; now we feel God’s grace.

Now we find forgiveness in this gift of love we share today.

Now we find forgiveness as we share God’s love today.

Scripture: Romans 12:9-13

Pastor: This is the Word of God for the people of God.

People: Thanks be to God!
