Anthem “Forgive Me”

arr. by Bruce Greer

The Sanctuary Choir

As I hold Your broken body and drink Your bitter cup,

Help me realize the depth of Your redeeming love.

If there is anything in me, any sin at all, forgive me, forgive me.

Through the constant struggle that never seems to cease,

As in life, so is the cross; it, too, was bittersweet.

As I receive this sacrifice, a holy mystery,

I’m amazed You’re sharing it with me.

You were crushed, You were bruised; You were scorned and You were used.

Here I am with nothing left but praise for You, praise for You.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

As I hold your broken body and drink Your bitter cup,

Help me realize the depth of Your redeeming love.

If there is anything in me, any sin at all, forgive me,

Forgive me, forgive me, forgive me.
